

From Susan . . .

Well it certainly has been a hectic couple of months at Bondfields, what with attending trade fairs in Sydney and our end of summer sale. We are well into our buying for Summer 2006, whilst we took I took some time out and recently visited the 'Shoe and Gift Fair' in Sydney. After much walking (I didn't realise that Darling Harbour Convention Centre was so big) I was able to source new suppliers for evening and day bags. This will add to our already exclusive range. So keep a look out in the coming months.

Our next exciting range of Guess Bags will be in shop next month with follow up stock in April. So ladies if you want your latest guess bag to compliment your winter boots, shoes make sure you are quick.
