

From Susan . . .

I am off to Sydney this week to discover what is on the scene for summer 2007. The Shoe and Handbag Fair is being held at Darling Harbour in Sydney. So after a night out with my girlfriend to see the Stage Show Priscilla it will be two days hard yakka looking at all the beautiful shoes and handbags. (A most enjoyable job).

The girls are getting excited as our winter stock is arriving daily. Check out below for some of our great styles. Still lots of red for winter so don't forget to get in early to ensure you get the boots of your choice. Boots for the winter as well as our standard lines will have more detail and a variety of shoe heights. Plus mid calf boots are very popular this coming winter.

Don't forget we still have our sale running. But be quick as it will finish next week to make way for our fabulous winter stock.

3 Steps to Shoe Success (by Angela Ayles)

Many women between the ages of 15 and 60 are absolutely obsessed with shoes, boots and footwear in general. Well maybe not exactly obsessed, but definitely close! Women are absolutely taken back by some of the fabulous shoe designs on the market. For this reason, some of the top designers in the fashion industry like Louis Vuitton and Prada, have created inimitable shoe lines for women to enjoy.

There are a number of things to remember when choosing the perfect pair of shoes. There are also a number of ways to get side tracked in the process. Great savings and outstanding deals don't always equal the best pair of shoes. Here are a few tips to keep in mind while shopping for a new pair of shoes:

Pain is not Beauty - You might find the most stunning pair of Betsey Johnson espadrilles but the look means nothing if you can't stand to wear them. Comfort, whether we like to admit it or not, plays a huge role in our shoe shopping decisions. Buying a pair of uncomfortable shoes just because they look nice will end up leaving your feet aching, your heart broken and your pocket empty. Do yourself a favour and choose a pair of shoes that make your feet feel great.

Have your Own Style - If you're a tomboy, you're better off choosing a pair of Baby Phat runners than you are choosing a pair of Versace stilettos. Likewise, if you're used to wearing heels, a pair of flats may actually end up hurting your back as well. It's essential to choose a style of shoe that your body is used to wearing. You'll end up looking better in the end because you'll be comfortable and confident in your overall look. Wear what you like, it is your money and you earned it!

Pay the Extra Few Bucks - Sometimes we just can't seem to talk ourselves into paying a couple hundred dollars for a pair of designer shoes but that doesn't mean it's not the best solution. In fact, paying more money usually means you're getting better quality. Although some people seem to think that when you buy a pair of Steve Madden shoes, you're paying for the name, you're actually paying for the name and the quality. Designer shoe labels use the highest quality materials and the best designing techniques to ensure they give you the best possible product. So spending a few extra dollars now will ultimately benefit you in the long run.

Sneak Peek 'Winter Shoes and Boots' . . .

Winter sees some fabulous boots this round. As stated in our last newsletter there is plenty of red in varying shades from maroon to red red. The boots in many colours that are gracing the stores this winter have more styling, but not to forget the always acceptable 'traditional looking boot' that we women forever adore.

Why not come in to the store soon to check out for yourself the winter boots, stock is arriving daily as we speak and will be on our shelves very soon. Don't forget we only have a certain amount of sizes and/or colours in each boot, so once they are sold out we can not guarantee to get anymore in. So it is always a good idea to come in earlier rather than later if you want to secure your very own pair of exclusive winter shoes or boots.

Until next month, we wish you the best that life can bring . . . Happy Shoe Shopping!
