

From Susan . . .

Welcome to 2007. I trust you all had a wonder Christmas and New Year with family and friends. My house is getting back to normal (whatever that is) after having my family home for the holidays. My patio at Christmas is full of fun living young men and their girlfriends from both my sons' school days at Woodlawn and living in Ballina. They both love to leave the city behind for a couple of weeks. Which reminds me that I will be attending the Shoe and Handbag Fair in Sydney in the middle of next month.

This month sees our buying for Summer 2007/2008 begin. On attending the Trade Fair in Brisbane earlier in the month I discovered more colour evident for summer 2007. More subtle colours. Plus still lots of sandals and thongs appearing.

Remember when in town to come in and browse our summer sale which is in full swing much to everyone's delight. We have great bargains for you with current summer stock greatly reduced. We are excited to see so many ladies taking advantage of this as this means we will make room for our exciting winter range which will start arriving in store in February.

Winter sees lots more red in varying shades from maroon to red red. Boots in many colours will grace ladies feet this coming winter with more styling as well as the traditional look. Look for next month's newsletter to get a sneak preview.

“Ladies Shoes Slashed 20-50%

To make way for my new season arrivals of quality brand name shoes . . . Selected Shoes at Bondfields has been slashed between 20-50% during our End of Summer Stock SALE!!

Bondfields Handbags In Focus . . .

Make sure you come and view our latest range of fabulous handbags in store.

We have bags for every woman and they are available in many fashion colours as you can see from the attached images here.

Until next month (which is only days away now) . . . Happy Shoe Shopping!

The Bondfields Team 😊