

From Susan . . .

It's getting close to Christmas Ladies and we have some fabulous goodies in store now for that summer style you so long for. Sandals, Thongs, Handbags..... Our latest ranges of Guess Handbags have arrived together with our latest collection of jewellery. Once we sell this particular range of jewellery they will not be available again as the company do not mass produce their jewellery preferring to give ladies something that is special.

Whilst in store don't forget to collect your Gold Card as we will be running promotions throughout the year for our card holders.

See our offer in this newsletter. This offer is just the beginning.

With our winter purchasing almost completed we are looking forward to seeing what next summer will bring. Boots for winter will vary with flats, high heels, patterns and all with great comfort. New brands and old brands will be available for you to choose from.
